

Vision, Aims and Objectives

Music at the heart of Bristol life

Mission

To lead a strategic, holistic, city wide approach to promoting music so that it flourishes through performance, composition, participation and education.

Aims and Objectives

- To facilitate all communities of Bristol to engage with music on many levels, as performers, composers and audiences
- To ensure that music is at the heart of education throughout the city
- To enable partnerships that support Bristol musicians and the music industry to flourish locally, nationally and internationally
- To enable the development of sustainable and ambitious music venues and networks that collectively offer a world class programme of performance, participation and support in all genres of music in Bristol and the region
- To realise the potential of music to help deliver the health, economic, education and community cohesion priorities for Bristol
- To nurture partnerships with local, regional, national and international organisations to deliver all aspects of the Mission
- To underpin all of these aims with a robust commitment to inclusion and diversity, involving the people of Bristol in shaping, leading and delivering the above
